

WorldPride DC 2025

Street Street Festival Exhibitor Terms and Conditions

2025 marks the 50th Anniversary of Pride celebrations in Washington, DC! The Capital Pride Alliance is excited for Washington, DC to host WorldPride 2025 and share this momentous and exciting milestone with our international community. Licensed by Interpride, the Capital Pride Alliance has been selected to host the WorldPride 2025 Celebration and reserves all rights to the WorldPride brand.

Our Mission

The Capital Pride Alliance, through its stewardship of diverse programming and events, specifically year-round LGBTQ+ Pride festivities centered in Washington, DC and the National Capital Region, serves to celebrate, educate, support, and inspire our multi-faceted communities in order to grow and preserve our history and protect our rights for current and future generations.

Our Purpose

The Capital Pride Alliance (CPA), located in Washington, DC, is a nonprofit organization dedicated to serving the needs of the LGBTQ+ community all year long, through educational programs, major events, fundraising, outreach and advocacy, providing platforms for visibility, and supporting the work of our many community organizations and local businesses.

Online Application Information

Capital Pride Alliance retains the right to refuse any Street Festival application without liability. Capital Pride Alliance retains the right to cancel events during the WorldPride DC 2025 Celebration at any time, in part or in full, without liability.

The act of receiving an online registration application shall not be deemed to impart or imply any obligation for Capital Pride Alliance to accept any bid or application. Upon approval of an application, the successful applicant will be notified via email of their acceptance and admission into the WorldPride DC 2025 Street Festival. Applications will be considered incomplete and will be placed on hold if full payment is not made when the application is submitted online.

These rules and regulations form part of the Application and Agreement for participation in the WorldPride DC 2025 ("Street Festival") between the Capital Pride Alliance, Inc. d.b.a. Capital Pride ("CPA"), and the Street Festival Applicant ("Participant").

In order to participate in the WorldPride DC 2025 Celebration, all organizations, affiliates, and individuals must:

- Support the mission and purpose of Capital Pride Alliance.
- Abide by the Rules of the Street Festival Entry and all Terms and Conditions.
- Acknowledge that a failure to honor the mission and undertaking of the Street Festival; or failure to comply with Capital Pride Alliance's rules could result in penalties, including exclusion from current and future events; or financial penalties.

- All applicants must meet category (non-profit or for-profit and tier) eligibility requirements as outlined in the online registration application. If requested by Capital Pride Alliance, applicants must provide proof that they qualify for the category applied for on their registration form. Should there be a dispute, Capital Pride Alliance reserves the right to deny an application on the grounds of ineligibility or offer the applicant an opportunity to reapply under the appropriate category with payment of the appropriate fees.

Street Festival participants who breach any of the terms and conditions may be banned from participating in present or future Capital Pride Events. Please note the Parade, Street Festival, and Concert are “rain-or-shine” events. Capital Pride Alliance does not assume any liability for bad or inclement weather or other factors outside the control of Capital Pride Alliance. Refunds cannot and will not be made for any reason whatsoever.

For further WorldPride DC 2025 information, visit our web site at www.worldpridedc.org. All applicants are deemed to have read and agreed to the following. By completing this registration application and submitting it for consideration the Applicant agrees to abide by the Terms and Conditions listed below:

WHEREAS

On behalf of and with authority of the organization/ business/ individual making this application:

- 1) The Applicant confirms that they are of the age of majority and have the authority to assume full responsibility for the behavior of all persons participating in the events falling under this application. The Applicant further agrees to comply with all applicable federal, state, and municipal laws and regulations in connection with the event.
- 2) The Applicant agrees to operate in a manner consistent with the celebration of Pride and the positive value of diversity and identity in the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual, Transgender, and Queer communities.
- 3) The Applicant hereby declares that no policy discriminates against, or harassment of any person who is employed by or is seeking either employment, membership, partnership, or volunteer status with the organization/business or individual based on race, color, national origin, religion, sex, gender identity, physical or mental disability, medical condition, ancestry, marital status, age, sexual orientation, citizenship, or status as a covered veteran.
- 4) Assignment of placement at the Street Festival is processed according to many criteria. Placement is at the sole discretion of Capital Pride. Should conditions dictate, Capital Pride reserves the right to reassign placement as necessary through the start of the events.
- 5) The Applicant specifically agrees that Capital Pride Alliance assumes no responsibility for damages to persons or property however caused, as a result of or pertaining to the participation and/or activities of the organization/business or individual. To the full extent permitted by law, the CPA shall not in any manner or for any cause be liable or responsible to any Participant or any other for any injury or damage to any person, business, or property in any way related to, or arising in connection with, the Parade and Street Festival. Any and all claims for such injuries or damages are hereby waived and Applicant/Participant agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the CPA and directors, officers, staff, vendors, volunteers, and agents (the “Indemnified Parties”) against any and all claims, liabilities, losses and expenses, including reasonable attorney’s fees, imposed on, incurred by, or asserted against Indemnified Parties caused by any act or omission of Participant, or arising in connection with the activities conducted by the Participant in connection with the Street Festival.
- 6) The Applicant understands that alcoholic beverages and controlled substances are not permitted at the Street Festival site (outside of beverage gardens and provided by Capital Pride) or on the Parade route or staging area.

7) Consequences:

The Applicant understands and agrees that any breach of contract may result in one or more of the following consequences:

- a) Denial of permission to participate in the Pride Street Festival
- b) Forfeiture of any and all registration fees
- c) Removal from participation during the Pride Street Festival
- d) Financial penalties
- e) Legal action with respect to Breach of Contract and/or Trespassing
- f) Exclusion from participation in future events
- g) Application of criminal charges
- h) Legal action to recover monetary costs related to actions by the participants, including damage to property, court fines, and fees resulting from lawsuits or charges against CPA

8) Financial & Contractual Requirements

- a) Refunds cannot be made for any reason.
- b) All fees are payable online by CREDIT CARD. Capital Pride Alliance accepts Discover, American Express, Visa & MasterCard; cash will not be accepted.
- c) Applicants that are unable to pay with a credit card will be charged a processing and bank fee.
- d) Applications will not be processed if payment is incomplete. The next applicant on the waiting list will be contacted immediately and presented with an opportunity to register.
- e) Terms: Before March 31, 2025, net 30 days; registration is not confirmed and will be cancelled if not paid within 30 days.
- f) Absolutely no applications will be considered after March 31, 2025, if full payment is not made with a credit card at time of registration.
- g) If payment is not received by the invoice due date, your registration will be cancelled. Should your organization re-register, the discounted rate of the original application is void and the applicant will be responsible for the full payment amount.

- h) If the Capital Pride Alliance is required to officially cancel the event by March 31, 2025, 100% of collected registration fees will be refunded. No refunds will be given for event cancellation beginning April 1, 2025. Please note that registration fees are otherwise non-refundable for any other reason.

9) Street Festival requirements:

Please review all requirements and provisions related to booth space. Failure to provide strict compliance with all provisions, and all applicable District of Columbia government regulations and requirements, will result in denial of access to booth space and forfeiture of all applicable fees, and may result in reimbursement to CPA of government-imposed fines and penalties.

- a) Food and Beverage - The CPA reserves the right to be the sole provider of all food and beverages of any kind. Beverages of any kind, including, but not limited to, water (bottled or any other kind), soft drinks or sodas, sports drinks, juices, smoothies, or alcoholic beverages may NOT be sold (or otherwise distributed) by any exhibitor. Only beverages or food for personal consumption by organization personnel is permitted.
- b) This is a two-day event. Exhibitors are required to participate on both days (Jun 6 & 7, 2025). Only one organization is allowed to be represented per registration. The same organization must be represented on both days.
- c) Only Exhibitors applying for “Commercial – Food Sales” space may sell (or otherwise distribute) non-alcoholic beverages, food, or food products of any kind. No vendors may sell or otherwise distribute alcoholic beverages.
- d) Assignment of booth space and booth space location is at the sole discretion of the CPA. Should conditions dictate, the CPA reserves the right to reassign booth space and/or relocate booth space as necessary.
- e) Exhibitors shall not place in the booth space any apparatus or goods that shall in any manner be objectionable, or that shall in any manner be dangerous. The CPA reserves the sole right to determine whether such apparatus or goods are consistent with this provision and may require their immediate removal.
- f) The CPA reserves the right to move or prohibit the display of any signage, article, or product that, in its opinion, is not in keeping with the nature and character of the Street Festival, or not in harmony with other booth spaces.
- g) No Exhibitor shall operate amplification equipment or voice or audio reproducing machines of any type. The CPA has the sole authority to require the immediate removal of any such equipment.
- h) Generators are prohibited without the written approval of the Capital Pride Alliance. For an additional fee, participants may register for a booth with electrical power.

- i) Booth spaces must be always staffed and operated in a professional and courteous manner. The CPA reserves the sole right to determine compliance with this provision and has the right to order the immediate cessation of any activity in violation of this requirement.
- j) Exhibitor shall have the right, subject to the provisions herein contained, to arrange materials and goods within the booth space allotted to them in the manner best suited for displaying and demonstrating their goods and services. No part of an exhibit shall extend outside of the booth space or interfere with adjoining booths. No signage, flyers, or promotional materials of any kind may be posted in or on locations outside of the allotted space within the perimeter of the Street Festival area, without prior written permission by the CPA.
- k) Within a maximum of two hours of the closure of the Street Festival Exhibiting hours, Exhibitor shall have removed all property, goods, and materials brought into the Street Festival area, and shall leave the space both broom clean and free from all rubbish. All rubbish must be properly disposed of according to Street Festival Site guidelines.
- l) Exhibitor shall “load-in” all property, goods and materials during the designated set-up period only.
- m) Exhibitor shall be prohibited from removing property, goods, and services during the operating hours of the Street Festival, without the written consent of the CPA.
- n) Exhibitor shall not assign or sublet any of the booth space(s) granted to them as set forth herein, without the prior written consent of the CPA.
- o) Exhibitor shall install materials in such a manner as not to cause damage to the booth space, any other booth space(s), or to the Street Festival grounds. Any such damage and subsequent liability incurred by the CPA, or resulting government fines, shall be paid by Exhibitor or reimbursed to the CPA.
- p) Exhibitor must make provisions for the safeguarding of goods, materials, equipment, and displays at all times. The CPA does not guarantee or protect exhibitors against loss or damage of any kind. The CPA shall in no way be liable for Exhibitor failure to make provisions for the safeguarding of such items, and Exhibitor agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the CPA for any such failure to make such provisions.

10) Washington, DC Municipal Requirements

- a) Participant represents and warrants that the participant and organization has or will maintain throughout the conclusion of the Street Festival appropriate insurance policies and coverage limits for all vehicles, property, and individuals participating in the Street Festival on behalf of the Participant, and that CPA is, or will be, named as an insured under such policies for the period of the Street Festival in the amount of $1,000,000. Participant will provide CPA with a copy of such policies upon CPA's request. The CPA shall in no way be liable for Participant's failure to obtain proper insurance, and Participant agrees to indemnify and hold harmless the CPA for any such failure to obtain insurance. For insurance purposes:
